Read the question on the left and jot down your answers to the right

Do you have any important spaces in your life – a special place in nature, a place where your family gathers, or a meeting space for a team or club?

What do you do in those spaces? Why are those places important to you?

Do you know any names for religious spaces or places of worship? They can be from any religion – like church, temple, etc.

Can you think of any reasons why it might be important for religions to have sacred spaces?

What do you think people do when they gather together in those spaces?
